II. ADMINISTRATIVE MOTIONS

- a. Discussion and vote on holders of P.O.Box Key: Danielle Motions that KimMarie, Alison, and Annie hold the keys to access the P.O. Box, Denelle 2nd. Approved: YES-8
- b. 311 Service Event
Gay Havard: March Madness. All Block Clubs under Park Mesa this year to put 311 requests online. View Heights has the list of repairs and needs. Gay has gotten the contacts for all Block Clubs and created a What's App. Put in your request on the My311 App. If you have trouble doing that, email the club to have things put on the list. PMH is in 4th place. We need to increase our number. The winning group gets a Block Party and a clean up TBD. Can submit a NEW request even if another has for that location. Email or text Gay your requests, and she can send you the list. A website has also been created. Bridget will do a zoom call next week to show. She will make a shared google drive. Denell would like to see from last year, what has been resolved and not. Danielle suggests a google form to collect data from constituents. Kim: Palm fronds issue in Angeles Mesa. Julia Smith proposes an event with View Park school for a clean up event and go as a group, intro selves, then go as a group to Destination Crenshaw regarding the block. Let's do 311 calls on that.
